The Mayor, Cllr Hugh Towns believed that the Council had concluded a very successful year, but eventually it is the Townspeople who will be decide how successful it had been , based on their views of the work carried out on their behalf by the Council. Two of the largest projects ever carried out by the Council have been completed, namely the Heritage Town Trail and the renovations to the Shire Hall.

The Mayor thanked the Deputy Mayor for his support , especially over the past six months when work commitments had restricted his time. The highlights were the visit to Llandeilo's Twin Town of Le Conquet in Brittany, which was thoroughly entertaining, and the Flower and Music Festival which continues to go from strength to strength.

Cllr Towns was heartened and pleurably surprised by the number of voluntary groups that carried out such wonderful work in and around the Town and thanked them all for their efforts. ' its so many people doing so many wonderful things that makes Llandeilo such a great Town.'
