Min 219 / Dec/15 The Council Budget for the Financial Year 2016 / 2017

The Finance Officer presented a comprehensive report of the budget to date. The Council then discussed a forecast of the expected expenditure for the remainder of the present financial year. The Council then considered its budget for the financial year 2016/17 in answering the following questions :-

What are the Council's essential spends and what could be described as discretionary spends The Finance Officer provided forecasts with different options. Mr Plummer recommended an increase in the precept of 5%.

It was proposed by the Mayor Cllr Gordon Kilby and seconded by Cllr Julia Jones that the Council increase its budget by 5% for the Financial Year 2016/17.

This will increase the Council's Budget from £ 53,621 to £ 56,302, an increase in the precept of 5%.

All were in favour.

It was agreed to further review areas of the Council's expenditure at the January Finance Meeting to include reference to Cllr Edward Thomas' Discussion Document.

Meeting closed at 8.45pm
